Customer Authority/Declaration

Information you provide to ANZ, part of ANZ National Bank Limited (the 'Bank') will be kept strictly confidential and will be securely held by the Bank and/or any of its subsidiaries and its related companies (as defined by the Companies Act 1993) including Australia and New Zealand Banking Group Limited ('ANZ Group').

So the bank can ensure your information is accurate, please let us know of any changes in your personal details, such as your address.

The Bank may use this information to:

- › consider your application for facilities, products or services;
- › administer, manage and monitor any facilities, products or services provided to you;
- › conduct market research, data processing and statistical analysis; and
- › unless you disagree, provide you with information about other facilities, products or services including select third party products or services.

I do not wish to receive information about other facilities, products or services.

The Bank may disclose information about you to the ANZ Group, agents or contractors for the above purposes.

The Bank may disclose information about you to credit reference agencies for the purpose of obtaining credit reports on you. Those credit reference agencies may retain that information and provide it to their customers who use their credit reporting services.

If you default in any obligations to the Bank, then the Bank may disclose information about you to credit reference or debt recovery agencies and it may be retained by them. Those agencies may provide that information to their customers who use their credit reporting services. The Bank may also disclose account information to any authorised signatory to your accounts.

If you are under 18 years old, the Bank may contact your parent(s)/guardian(s) to disclose, or to collect, information about you that will help the Bank contact you, or to obtain repayment of any amount you owe the Bank.

The Bank may obtain information and make such enquiries about you as the Bank may consider warranted from any source including the ANZ Group and credit reference agencies for the above purpose.

I/We declare that:

1. The information in this application forms the basis of the agreement between me/us and ANZ.
2. I/we certify that the information on this application is true and correct.
3. I/we certify that I/we am/are not (an) undischarged bankrupt(s) and am/are not liable under any proceedings under the Insolvency Act 1967 or the Insolvency Act 2006 and its amendments.

What happens next?

If you're new to ANZ....

1. If you meet our account eligibility criteria, you'll receive a welcome letter confirming your new account number. Please note that you can only deposit money into your new account(s). You will only be able to withdraw or transfer money from your new account once you've been to an ANZ branch in New Zealand and satisfied the identification and signing authority requirements.
2. You can transfer up to the equivalent of NZ$1 million into your new ANZ account(s) before you arrive in New Zealand. If you wish to transfer more please contact the New Resident Services Team in New Zealand.

When you arrive in New Zealand, you'll need to bring the following into an ANZ branch:

- › Your passport (original, not a photocopy)
 - › Your account details (found in your welcome letter)
 - › Confirmation of your New Zealand address.
3. Once we've viewed your identification and you've completed the signing authority, you'll be able to use a wide range of services and apply for a variety of ANZ banking products. Just talk to one of our team at an ANZ branch.

If you're already an ANZ customer...

1. A customer service consultant may phone you to confirm your details
2. You'll receive a letter in the mail confirming your new account number.
